Chris Hoy Signed Team GB Short Sleeve Cycling Jersey (size M) - Limited Edition #1 of 100

The first Briton since 1908 to win three gold medals in a single Olympic Games, Sir Chris Hoy is the most successful Olympic male cyclist of all time. He won his first gold in Athens 2004 in the Kilo, an event that was dropped for Beijing 2008. Chris took this in his stride and switched his focus to three other track sprint events – the Keirin, Sprint and Team Sprint. He went on to win gold in all three at the Beijing Games, cementing his name in the history books. Limited and numbered out of only 100, Chris has personally autographed this adidas 2012 Team GB replica cycling jersey designed by Stella McCartney. Each signed jersey includes the Official Sporting Memorabilia hologram and online product registration card.

2

Chris Hoy/Victoria Pendleton Framed Signed Team GB Short Sleeve Cycling Jersey (size XS) - Limited Edition #100 of 100

Two of Great Britain's greatest ever track cyclists, Sir Chris Hoy and Victoria Pendleton each took home Olympic gold medals during the Beijing 2008 Games. In a Limited Edition Series of only 100, Chris and Victoria have personally autographed this adidas 2012 Team GB replica cycling jersey designed by Stella McCartney which is set in a quintessentially British frame design. Track Cycling Dominance Team GB Gold Medal Winners Frame w/Signature Cards - Limited Edition #70 of 212

Perhaps the biggest story of the London 2012 Games for Great Britain came from the Velodrome where a clearly dominant Team GB claimed 7 out of a possible 10 gold medals available in Track Cycling. So dominant was the performance, hints of cheating were even suggested by rival nations. No doubt a compliment to the hard working Brits who prided themselves on dedication, perseverance and a later revealed commitment to gaining a 1% improvement in every possible area as a key competitive advantage. As the Official Sporting Memorabilia licensee for London 2012 and Team GB, we've been inspired by the success of the entire Team GB Track Cycling squad. This success combined with our passion to create lasting memories through premium memorabilia is the motivation behind creating a very special "once in a lifetime" commemorative piece, honouring the incredible achievements of Team GB on the track at the London 2012 Games.

Suitably titled, "Track Cycling Dominance", this stunning framed montage captures imagery from each of the 7 gold medals won by Team GB at the Velodrome, supported by original hand signed autographs from all 11 Team GB members involved in this magnificent achievement. Each image in the montage is supported by inconspicuous printed copy indicating the event and the gold medallists. The double Blue/Gold Suede mount is simply stunning with Team GB logos and each individual name stamped in shimmering gold foil. This piece is a must have for memorabilia seekers looking to add something special to their collection from the Games.

- 42 London 2012 classic Routemaster bus - signed Steve Redgrave. L/E 200 of 200
Games from 1984 to 2000. In a very Limited Edition Series of only 200, Steve has personally autographed this London 2012 Great British Classics - Routemaster Bus. This die-cast Routemaster bus is one of a highly collectable series of four Great British Classics inspired by the London 2012 Games. The double-decker bus was the official mode of transport for over 6,000 athletes during the 1948 London Olympics and remains an iconic symbol of London which will be seen by millions of visitors during the 2012 Games. This hand-signed collectable also includes the Official Sporting Memorabilia hologram and online product registration card.

43 Royal Mail countdown cover collection- 1 Year to Go - signed Seb Coe. L/E # 100 of 100

One hundred personally signed by Lord Sebastian Coe himself, this 2011, 1 year to Go Olympic Countdown Coin cover sports the Official Sporting Memorabilia hologram on the rear alongside the Great Olympians treasured autograph. "Tomorrow is another day, and there will be another battle!" - Seb Coe (a few minutes after a 2nd place finish in the 800m Olympic Games final in Moscow 1980, he later won the 1500m) One of the greatest middle distance runners of all time, Sebastian Coe is the only man in modern times to have won the Olympic 1500m title twice. His victory in Moscow in 1980, a comeback triumph after losing the 800m, for which he was an overwhelming favourite, was testament to his courage and mental strength.

44 Tom Daley - Framed Signed Team GB Swim Trunks - Limited Edition # 150 of 150

Tom Daley has made an impact in national and international Diving competitions from the age of 9. He represented Great Britain at the Beijing 2008 Olympics where he was Britain's youngest competitor, the youngest competitor of any nationality outside the sport of swimming, and the youngest to participate in a final. All eyes will be on the likeable lad from Plymouth as he represents a legitimate gold medal chance in Diving for Team GB at the London 2012 Games. In a Limited Edition Series of only 150, Tom has personally autographed these adidas 2012 Team GB swim trunks which are set in a quintessentially British frame design. Each frame in the series is individually numbered and includes the Official Sporting Memorabilia hologram in the lower right. Online product registration card is also included.

45 The London 2012 Olympic Games Commemorative Teddy Bear - One of a kind 'Show Piece'

A unique opportunity to own a show piece-sized official London 2012 Olympic Games teddy bear, the only product of its kind to be produced by Merrythought. This wonderful one-off teddy bear has been handmade in England using the finest golden mohair. He has been displayed in John Lewis's Oxford Street store throughout the Games, and is now available as a one of a kind collector's piece, representing a unique piece of Olympic history. Nearly-new condition.

46 The London 2012 Olympic Games Commemorative 16" Teddy Bear - Union Jack. Limited Edition #1 of 212

This official London 2012 teddy bear has been beautifully handmade in England by Merrythought, Britain's sole-remaining soft toy manufacturer. He is based on an original Merrythought design from 1948 - the year London last hosted the Olympic Games - and is made from the finest golden mohair. The small 10in version of this Union Jack teddy bear sold out before the Games even started (limited edition of 2012 units), making this larger size a valuable collector's item. Presented boxed.

Car Bonnet signed by multiple Great British Sporting Legends

In 2004 the British Olympic Association were donated a Rover Streetwise car to auction as the main Gala auction item at their annual Celebrity Dinner in one of London's 5 star hotels. The car had a registration of VU54 WYR. This was a fund-raising event to support British athletes leading up to the 2012 Olympic Games and as a result you will find and discover the signatures of many sporting celebrities; British Olympic and Commonwealth Games medal winners who pledged their own support in 2004 to raise as much money as possible.

Many of the signatures come from Great British Sporting Legends.

The car was bought by Sir Keith Mills, Deputy Chairman of the London Organising Committee of the Olympic Games at an undisclosed price.

The signed car bonnet is now available for auction. The original car is still happily running around London with a current mileage of 58,000 in good condition. The car is available to match the bonnet for an extra £750.

The car and signed bonnet are owned by Gary Johnston, a senior London 2012 manager who purchased the car from Sir Keith Mills several years ago. The car has been well maintained and has a full year MOT.

The following signatures represent approx. 70% of total:

Sebastian Coe - Two-time Olympic Gold Medallist

Duncan Goodhew - Olympic Gold Medallist Swimmer

Adrian Moorhouse - Olympic Gold Medallist Swimmer

Kriss Akabusi - Three-time Olympic Medallist and TV celebrity

Shirley Robertson - Two-time Olympic Gold Medallist Sailing

Team GB Limited Edition Ingot Collection of 3

Three sterling silver ingots, the very first of their kind, together in one set. Only 999 sets in this series were issued worldwide, each of them individually numbered. What is special/interesting about this set is that it came directly from LOCOG and does not contain a number, most likely being a pre-production sample provided in the licensing product approval process. Each ingot in the set is struck in solid sterling silver and hallmarked. The first of the ingots features the Team GB logo - a British lion in red and blue to embody British unity and strength along with the Olympic Rings. The second ingot features the Paralympics GB logo, a differently interpreted British lion facing the viewer with an expression showing the strength and resolve of the British team. The third ingot features a map of the United Kingdom filled with the words that reflect the ethos of both Team GB & ParalympicsGB teams - 'Dynamic', 'Pride' 'Passion' and 'Success' - the words that will drive our athletes towards sporting success at the London 2012 Games. All three ingots in this set are minted to Proof standard, the highest possible quality: mirror quality design details contrast against a matte silver surface. Limited edition 999 worldwide.

Dimensions: 290x160x32mm.

Each ingot 20 grams, .925 Sterling Silver

118 Mo Farah Signed Original L2012 Olympic Stadium Track Frame - 10,000m (L/E #11 of 12)

On the 4th August 2012, Mo Farah created history at the London Olympic Games. In his first race Mo capped off 'Super Saturday' by winning the 10,000m gold, Great Britain's first ever Olympic gold medal at this distance and came during a spectacular day for Team GB where two other gold medals were captured during the same athletics session (Jessica Ennis and Greg Rutherford). A week later on the 11th August 2012, Mo completed the hardest track double of them all by winning the 5,000m event. Mo now joins just 5 people in Olympic history to win the 5k/10k double and the only athlete to do it on home soil. To finish off an amazing 2012, Mo's wife Tania gave birth to twin daughters Aisha and Amani who Mo dedicated each of his gold medals to.

Signed by Mo Farah is this original piece of Olympic Stadium Track that was used in the "2 Years To Go" celebration before the final competition Track was installed for the Games.
