2. Have you been an athlete in Paralympic sport? If so, please list the sport and in which years you have competed on an international level. You may wish to add relevant results.

Para Athletics and Para Table-Tennis since 1989.

3. Have you served on any board/committee/commission (or similar) relevant to Paralympic sport or the Paralympic Movement previously? If so, please list in what organisation and in what position.

2014 – present: President Asian Paralympic Committee
 2009-2014: Vice President Asian Paralympic committee
 2012 – present: Vice President UAE Disabled Sports Federation
 2012 – present: Vice President UAE NPC

4. Have you served as an administrator in Paralympic sport? If so, please list in what organisation and in what position.

I've been the Executive Director of Althiqah club in Sharjah and Dubai club for People of Determination since 2000.

5. Why do you wish to be elected to the APC Executive Board?

As President of the Asian Paralympic Committee since end of 2014, I have noticed that the Paralympic Committees of the region are facing many difficulties in many areas that need to be addressed with short term and long terms plans. Asia has a low representation in the Paralympic Games in spite of having the biggest population of people with disability in the world, so for that, I'm working together with my team to support the development of athletes and NPCs in the region.

6. What do you feel are the greatest attributes you would bring to the APC Executive Board?

I have an extensive knowledge of the Asian region, its capacities, its challenges, its people, etc. I will be able to defend the interests of the region.

I am an active person, who speaks his mind and like to put words into action.

7. What is your vision for the APC? What do you see as strategic priority for the next years?

The Paralympic movement has been growing at a fast speed in the past years, especially since London 2012. In order to keep growing while building a sustainable model that will bring legacy for the future, we need to focus on the empowerment of less developed nations. The gap between the highly developed nations and the poorer ones seems to get wider, while the Paralympic movement as a whole is growing. We need to make sure that all nations are included and that this gap reduces in the next years – we want more athletes from all over the world to have the possibility to participate in the highest level of competitions, but this starts with competitions at the local/national level. We need to identify ways to support the smaller nations to be able to have the same opportunities as the all-times medal winners.

8. What do you value most about the Paralympic Movement?

I value the magic of the Paralympic Movement in transforming the life of people with impairment in supporting them to become more independent and productive individuals in their respective communities.

9. What is your definition of 'being athlete centred' as an organisation?

Having the athlete at the centre of our preoccupations means that as an organisation we focus on providing him with the best conditions to perform to the best of his capacities. It means that we provide him with the support he needs in all areas to develop as best as possible. That includes from grass-root level to ensure that his family supports him, that he has a space and equipment to train, that his NPC supports him. It also means at a wider level that we support the NPC to provide the best environment for him, to send him to local, national, regional, international competitions, to educate and train him further, to provide him with skilled, trained and experienced coaches, etc.

10. Have you advocated for inclusion and diversity in the past? Please describe.

I have participated as lecturer in many conferences and forums about raising awareness of people with an impairment.

I'm member of Dubai Government accessibility commission and working on making Dubai city as the most accessible city in the world for Disabled.

1. What are your major contributions to the Paralympic Movement and/or what specific experience do you have in the Paralympic Movement or with Para sport?

Organizational Activity	Athletes Delegation
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Advisor, Korea Paralympic Committee (KPC) 2016~</li> <li>• Member at Large, PyeongChang Organizing Committee for the 2018 Olympic &amp; Paralympic Winter Games 2005~2011</li> <li>• Member at Large, International Paralympic Committee 2009~2013</li> <li>• Member at Large, Bidding Committee for the 2018 Olympic &amp; Paralympic Winter Games 2005~2011</li> <li>• President, Korea Paralympic Committee (KPC) 2005~2009</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Chef de Mission of Unified Team KO REA(COR) Delegation, Indonesia 2018 Asian Para Games 2018.10</li> <li>• Team Leader of Team Korea, Beijing Joint Training 2018.9</li> <li>• Chef de Mission of Team Korea, Dubai 2017 Asian Youth Para Games 2017.12</li> </ul>

I can proudly state my legacy as the president of KPC, I laid down various administrative and institutional groundwork, and launched the KPC Incheon training Centre, where our national athletes from other regions of Asia can train in professional and barrier free area. Moreover, I made an official visit to Pyongyang which enabled the communication and exchange of information with DPRK and contributed to their application to become IPC and APC members as well as their international appearance since then.

- 2. Have you been an athlete in Paralympic sport? If so, please list the sport and in which years you have competed on an international level. You may wish to add relevant results.

None.

- 3. Have you served on any board/committee/commission (or similar) relevant to Paralympic sport or the Paralympic Movement previously? If so, please list in what organisation and in what position.

- Advisor, Korea Paralympic Committee (KPC) (2016~present)
- Member at Large, PyeongChang Organizing Committee for the 2018 Olympic & Paralympic Winter Games (POCOG) (2011~2013)
- Member at Large, International Paralympic Committee (2009~2013)
- President, Korea Paralympic Committee (KPC) (2005~2009)

- 4. Have you served as an administrator in Paralympic sport? If so, please list in what organisation and in what position.

None

- 5. Why do you wish to be elected to the APC Executive Board?

While I was serving my term in the IPC Governing Board, under representation of voice of Asia was always my biggest concern. Asian region makes up 60 percent of the global population and I would like, now to see more influential leaders coming from the Asian region. Paralympic Movement has been and still is evolving around western regions, including Europe and North America. Along with APC Secretariat and other Board members, I would like to put our efforts and capability into spread of Paralympic Movement in the region and influence of Asian in the Movement. Through that, I believe that we can unite everyone within Asia under the same goal and vision, peace and inclusion.

6. What do you feel are the greatest attributes you would bring to the APC Executive Board?

As a human rights activist, social activist, and politician, I dedicated my entire life to fight for the rights of the minorities, involved in various entities, including nongovernmental organizations, National Assembly, public organization, and international governing body, and to make this world a better place. While working in National Assembly, I made it unlawful to discriminate against a persons with impairment, in many areas of public life, for the first time ever in Korea, by passing the Disability Discrimination Act in 2007. With the financial support and approval of the government, I constructed and opened the KPC Incheon Training Center. I would call myself a pioneer of inter-Korea sports cooperation in field of para sports and contributed to first ever joint marching and formation of unified team in the latest edition of Asian Para Games.

The biggest merit is that I am a minority, as a woman and impaired person with high support need; I have a clear understanding of diversity and inclusion policy. Thus, I can provide various recommendations to direction of APC's vision. With my personal experience and capability, I will set my direction to empowering developing NPCs and inclusion of 5 sub regions in Asia as my main goal so that Asia could become a role model for the spread of the Paralympic Movement.

7. What is your vision for the APC? What do you see as strategic priority for the next years?

1. Inclusion

- Develop education programs to raise awareness of para sports and impairment to facilitate social inclusion
- As an "Athlete Centered" organization, I would like to contribute in building an environment to empower athletes and run the career support program for current/retire athletes

2. Peace

- APC and Asia has boundless potential; however, due to linguistic, cultural, and religious differences, it was delayed forming a collective force. If Asia could form a united action and make one voice, it will positively affect APC's organizational capacity in spreading Paralympic Movement in Asia but peace can be brought into the region through sport.
- Continue the legacy of the Indonesia 2018 Asian Para Games, joint marching and unified team demonstrated power of sports and potential of its region. I would like to assist APC in spreading a message of peace in Korean peninsula and to the entire region through para sports.

3. Expand Partnership

- By signing a long term agreement with IOC, IPC became more financially stable. Create active cooperation opportunities with OCA, and expand its existing partnership.
- Establish new Partnership, including KOICA(Korea International Cooperation Agency, hereafter KOICA). KOICA's Advisor Program has been supporting spread of para sports in various regions in Asia. It would be great to expand the partnership with international cooperation agency

4. Dream Together

- - Provide more equal opportunities for the underrepresented to participate

8. What do you value most about the Paralympic Movement?

As I have mentioned above, it is harmony and inclusion.
To make this possible and steady, financial stability is one of the most essential aspect.

9. What is your definition of 'being athlete centred' as an organisation?

Providing practical support throughout athletes' career.
From setting groundwork for finding young talent, development and management of athletic achievement, and lastly, develop capability for the life after athletic career.

10. Have you advocated for inclusion and diversity in the past? Please describe.

I put a lot of thoughts into diversity and inclusion for many years. Before getting into the Paralympic Movement, I was involved in various human rights organizations including Korea Differently Abled Women Union and Busan Differently Abled Women Solidarity and fought for the rights of underrepresented especially women with impairment. As a member of National Assembly, I legislated the Disability Discrimination Act through countless meetings and negotiations with the party leadership and the human rights organizations and built the Korea Disabled People's Development Institute.

With members of National Assembly in Korea, I raised my voice to enact the UN Convention on Disability Rights Citizenship Rights of persons with Disabilities. I attend the UN General Assembly on Annual basis to spread the notion of UN convention.

I believe that sports play a very important role in physical, social and economic rehabilitation of persons with disabilities. "Yes I can do it" is the self-confidence he acquires through sport that plays a very effective role in all spheres of his life whether social or economic. This confidence usually lead him to take challenges of life with great courage and achieve self-reliance. Paralympic Movement all over the world has been successful to change the lives of countless persons with disabilities and has ensured their true empowerment.

An organization of the Athletes, by the athletes and for the athletes fully competent to meet the challenges of consistent evolution, inclusion and diversity.

10. Have you advocated for inclusion and diversity in the past? Please describe.

Yes. I have not only advocated for inclusion and diversity but practically done that. Being Exco Joint Secretary of NPC Pakistan since 2002, I am involved in policy and decision making for the organization. As a matter of policy, we have been able to include women, athletes and people from various cities of Pakistan in the national executive body / other committees as well as in the executive bodies / other committees of 04 provincial chapters and district chapters of NPC Pakistan. At present the national executive body of NPC Pakistan comprises 04 women out of total strength of 7. Similarly, of their total strength, the provincial & district chapters have 30 to 50% women, 5 to 10% athletes & 40% from various union councils of the relevant district / province. This ensures true representation by means of inclusion and diversity. I believe this is essential because not only the socio-economic conditions but also the political situations varies in different areas and an organization of national level should cater the thoughts and needs of all. Diversity and inclusion becomes more important for regional organization like APC which has to make policies and decisions for the biggest continent of the world and it must have such representatives to be more rational and accurate in its policies and decisions. And that might be one of the major reasons I have agreed to my nomination.
